2 THE COURT: Mr. Moore, you want to jump in
3 here?

4 MR. MOORE: Yes, ma'am.

5 THE COURT: I figured there are public
6 defenders that will let you jump in here.

7 MR. MOORE: Well, I'm outnumbered, so I hope
8 they do.

9 I have one, Brandon Bradley. We're on our
10 way to completing depositions. We've done a lot.
11 We've got several scheduled days depos set, so
12 we'd -- I'd ask for a two docket.

13 THE COURT: Okay. You're asking for a
14 two-docket continuance?

15 MR. MOORE: Yes, I am.

16 THE COURT: For May the 1st?

17 MR. MOORE: Okay.

18 THE COURT: What says the State?

19 MR. MCMASTER: No objection.

20 THE COURT: Okay. On the cases I have one,
21 two, three, four, five, six, six cases. Okay, it
22 will be a waiver -- waive the appearance. Defense
23 continuance granted, set for docket sounding
24 May the 1st, 2013, at 9:00 a.m. If you all at some 25 point want to do a -- you want to sit down and do a

1 status hearing to try to figure out when we can
2 address this, I'll be happy to do that.

3 MR. MOORE: Okay.

4 THE COURT: Because I'll need that in order
5 to properly manage my docket in order to make sure
6 this has enough time to be heard. So I trust both
7 of you that when -- you'll know when the case is
8 ready. I don't normally have a problem with either
9 side with regard to knowing when your case is
10 ready. Let me know and then we'll get that --
11 we'll get that scheduled for time certain.

12 MR. MOORE: Will do, Judge.

13 THE COURT: Okay, thank you much.

14 MR. MOORE: Thank you.
