

Board of County Commissioners
February 9, 2000
Page

SCOGGG

Board of County Commissioners

February 9, 2000

Page 1
possible "at all times." The Copyright Act of Title 17 of the United States Code allows a person to copy software to load it onto a single computer and to make copies for personal or archival purposes only. Penalties include liability for damages suffered by the copyright owner or statutory damages of up to $100,000. We support these conditions to the Central Area's lack of regulations and b3pyp3ghü regulations.

RECOMMENDATION

Board of County Commissioners

February 9, 2000

Page

Board of County Commissioners

February 9, 2000

PENDING Requirements were not being met.

Board of County Commissioners

February 9, 2000

Page

Board of County Commissioners

February 9, 2000

A deposit of $250 was correctly calculated for an event attended by 200 people with al c

Board of County Commissioners

February 9, 2000

~~Further~~ recommend the Central Area comply wccc the Fair Labor Standards Act by compensating hourly employees for all hours worked.

Board of County Commissioners

February 9, 2000

FINDING 11 - ~~Management Information System for the~~ Relatives.

Board of County Commissioners

February 9, 2000

Page

Board of County Commissioners

February 9, 2000

Each of the Area sectors has been assigned to oversee the deposit and recording of all revenue to insure compliance with RP-2.

Board of County Commissioners

February 9, 2000

Page Masson, Assistant Department Director; and Scott Wallace, Central Area Operations

Director. We have attached the Pagggs and Recreation Department - Central Area's final reply

Respectfully submitted, Exhibit A.

25 February, 2000

TO: Jim Giles, CPA, Chief Deputy Clerk & Interim Chief Internal Auditor

Charles S. Nelson, Parks and Recreation Director

FTOOM:

Formal Reply to Audhü Fin2 2 2gs – Central Area
Page 2

Fin2ing 5~Posting requirements were nou being met.

Formal Reply to Audhü Fin2 2 2gs – Central Area