

IN THE CIRCUIT COURT OF THE EIGHTEENTH JUDICIAL CIRCUIT
IN AND FOR BREVARD COUNTY, FLORIDA

STATE OF FLORIDA,
Plaintiff,

05-2012-CF-35337 -A

v.

BRANDON BRADLEY,
Defendant,

FILED IN VIERA-C
CLERK OF CIR. CT.
BREVARD CO. FL.

2014 FEB 24 1 P 5: 18

SCOTT ELLIS

ORDER FOR THE RELEASE OF PROPERTY

This Court, having considered the Defendant's request for the return of his personal property currently being held by the Seminole County Sherriff's Office at the John E. Polk Correctional Institute, and also having considered the fact that, although the Defendant has been transferred back to the Brevard County Detention Center for incarceration until the conclusion of his case, items of his personal property remain at the John E. Polk Correctional Institute, it is therefore ORDERED AND ADJUDGED that all of the Defendant's personal property currently in the possession of the John E. Polk Correctional Center or Seminole County Sheriff's Office shall be released to a representative of the Office of the Public Defender for Brevard and Seminole Counties upon the request of said representative.

DONE AND ORDERED in chambers, in Viera, Brevard County, Florida, this 24th of February, 2014.

MORGAN REINMANN
CIRCUIT COURT JUDGE

Cc: Public Defender's Office
Office of the State Attorney, 18th Circuit
John E. Polk Correctional Facility
Seminole County Sheriff's Office

Case # 05-2012-CF-035337-AXXX-XX
Document Page # 262

22467220