EIGHTEENTH JUDICIAL CIRCUIT
OF FLORIDA

ADMINISTRATIVE ORDER NO:
15-17
Supersedes 11-34-B AMENDED

IN RE: DOMESTIC RELATIONS - PARENTING COORDINATION IN HIGH CONFLICT FAMILY LAW CASES

WHEREAS, children caught in the middle of high parental conflict are more likely to be harmed;
and

WHEREAS, it is the public policy of the State of Florida to assure that each minor child has frequent and continuing contact with both parents after the parents separate or the marriage of the parties is dissolved and to encourage parents to share the rights, responsibilities, and joys of childrearing; and

WHEREAS, the Florida Supreme Court adopted a guiding principle encouraging a family court process to “empower families through skills development, assist them to resolve their own disputes, provide access to appropriate services, and offer a variety of dispute resolution forums where the family can resolve problems without additional emotional trauma,” as set forth in In re Report of the Family Court Steering Committee (Family Courts IV), 794 So. 2d 518, 522 (Fla. 2001); and

WHEREAS, parenting coordination is a process whereby an impartial third person, called a parenting coordinator, helps the parties implement their parenting plan by facilitating the resolution of disputes between parents and/or legal guardians, providing education, making recommendations to the parties and, with the prior approval of the parties and the court, making decisions within the scope of the court order of appointment; and

WHEREAS, the use of parenting coordinators promotes the best interests of minor children and their parents in high conflict cases by reducing the duration and severity of parental conflict, thereby protecting children from the harmful effects of such conflict; and

WHEREAS, in that parenting coordination provides a form of alternative dispute resolution that enhances the purposes of Chapter 61, Florida Statutes, the legislature enacted Section 61.125, Florida Statutes, to establish the procedures for the proper administration of parenting coordination within the State of Florida, thereby obviating the need for the adoption of separate provisions for this Circuit; and

WHEREAS, Section 61.125, Florida Statutes, became effective on October 1, 2009; and

WHEREAS, this Circuit has developed certain forms that are relevant to the Circuit that will assist with the effectuation of the provisions set forth in Section 61.125, Florida Statutes; and

WHEREAS the Supreme Court of Florida promulgated Rule 12.742 of the Florida Family Law Rules of Procedure captioned Parenting Coordination on January 28, 2010; and

NOW, THEREFORE WHEREAS the Supreme Court of Florida issued AOSC14-64 on November 14, 2014, calling for uniformity throughout the state in the implementation of section 61.125 Florida Statutes and adopting a uniform statewide parenting coordination application form, pursuant to the authority vested in me as Chief Judge of the Eighteenth Judicial Circuit of Florida, under Rule 2.215, of the Florida Rules of Judicial Administration;

It is hereby ORDERED:

1. The provisions set forth in Section 61.125, Florida Statutes, shall be followed in this Circuit regarding parenting coordination.
2. A parenting coordinator must meet all the required qualifications set forth in Section 61.125 (4) Florida Statutes. A parenting coordinator so qualified must submit an application in substantial compliance with AOSC14-64 to be listed on the roster of parenting coordinators for this circuit to the Chief Judge or designee(s). The court shall only appoint a parenting coordinator that is currently listed on the roster of parenting coordinators for this or another circuit in Florida. The Chief Judge or designee(s) shall determine whether to approve the application. The roster of approved parenting coordinators will be kept by Court Administration.
3. The following forms, attached hereto, are hereby adopted and shall be used in carrying out the provisions of Section 61.125, Florida Statutes:
 - a. Order of Referral to Parenting Coordinator.
 - b. Report of General Magistrate on Motion for Referral to Parenting Coordinator.
 - c. Response by Parenting Coordinator.
4. The parties shall provide to the Parenting Coordinator a copy of a notice of hearing for any hearing scheduled with the court for any matter that is within the scope of the Order of Referral to Parental Coordination. During hearings when addressed by the court, the Parenting Coordinator may testify on the subjects of the parties' compliance with the Order of Referral to Parenting Coordination and the appropriateness of maintaining the case in parenting coordination. However, the Parenting Coordinator may not set a hearing with the court.
5. The Parenting Coordinator may report to the court in writing on the subjects of the parties' compliance with the Order of Referral to Parenting Coordination and the appropriateness of maintaining the case in parenting coordination. The court itself may set a status hearing after reviewing the written report of the Parenting Coordinator.
6. Prior to the expiration of the Order of Referral to Parent Coordinator, the court will determine whether the order should be extended. Within thirty days of the expiration date of the Order of Referral to Parenting Coordinator, the parenting coordinator will notify in writing the judicial assistant of the court which entered the Order of Referral to Parenting Coordinator or the successor of the expiration date, and such written notice shall contain a recommendation as to whether the order should be extended. The Court may thereafter schedule a hearing to determine whether the order of Referral to Parenting Coordinator should be extended.
7. Process For Periodic Review Of Whether Parenting Coordinator Continues To Be Qualified, And Removal If No Longer Qualified. ("The chief judge or designee(s) in each judicial circuit shall establish a process to periodically review whether a parenting coordinator continues to be qualified and shall remove a parenting coordinator immediately from the roster if the coordinator is no longer qualified.” Fla. Sup. Ct. AO14-64, p. 4) At least once per year, the Chief Judge or designee(s) will review the current roster of Parenting coordinators and determine if the individuals continue to meet the requirements for inclusion on the roster. Each parenting coordinator listed on the roster shall immediately notify the Chief Judge of any circumstance that would affect that person’s continued qualification to serve as a Parenting Coordinator pursuant to F.S. 61.125.

8. Any appeal pertaining to a Parenting Coordinator’s inclusion on or removal from the list of approved Parenting Coordinators shall be heard and decided by the Chief Judge or designee(s) whose decision shall be final.
