I wrote you a few days ago so i could fire my lawyer and in there i put a couple of reasons for that. In truth i put these reasons because i thought you were going to "hear" from the letter, but my real reason is because i know hes an under cover prosecutor working with the State giving them all the payments so they can find a way to make me look guilty for a crime i've never done. Plus all the the people who took oaths have had Sp. in them and they are forced to work against me too so it'll be me vs my lawyer, the State, the Judge and the jury when it all comes down to it i'll have to fight my case against 9 people. And the Co's talk about how they can kill me and get away with it, but come to the conclusion that i'm going to poison me because i know when they find out they'll go after me and my family. They've found the way to get into my medication so i can't take my medication to get rid of me secretly. So i've decided to refuse my food trays and medication and drink water until i feel better. Last night i was coughing up blood and the doctor didn't do anything to save me. I was lying until i spit a lot in a cup then she wouldn't do or say anything to help me so i know she's got a role in the way they want to kill me. So if anything happens in my health happens for the worst just know i tried letting somebody know on behalf of my family.
