

Direct Deposit of Alimony/Child Support Payments

The Brevard County Clerk of Court is pleased to offer direct deposit of Child Support/Alimony payments. This service is currently available and eliminates:

- Delays caused by the Postal Service
- Lost/Stolen Checks
- Inconvenience of going to the bank

Advantages to you include:

- Automatic deposits while you are on vacation, traveling on business, or in the event you are ill
- Funds MAY be available sooner than a mailed payment

If you elect to use this service, please complete and return the authorization form along with a voided check (for a checking account) or a voided deposit slip (for a savings account) with imprinted information. Starter checks/deposit slips are prohibited.

Direct deposit will begin the following business day after the Clerk's system has been updated. Any payments received between the receipt of your authorization form and start of the direct deposit will be mailed to you.

Should you have any questions about this service, please contact the Support Department at (321)637-5413.
